NSS students of Annamacharya University performed volunteer services at the Nandalu Sri Soumyanatha Swamy Kalyana celebrations. The students effectively displayed their services in managing the queues and providing services at the prasadam counters in the smooth running of the Kalyanam procedures. On this occasion, University Registrar N. Mallikarjuna Rao said, "Social service programs play an important role in the personality development of students and in establishing good relations with the society. Later, Principal Dr. S. M. V. Narayana said that the participation of students in such programs not only makes them understand social responsibility, but also provides a great opportunity to enhance the value of social services. Later, Vice Chairman Choppa Ella Reddy said, "The services rendered by the students are a source of pride for our university and we hope that they will serve us and further enhance social responsibilities. On this occasion, Head of the H&S Department Dr. L. Obulapathy, NSS Coordinator Dr. K Janardhan, Physical Director Dr. B Nagamuni, faculty member N Raghunath Reddy, and others participated.
